

Here's something for you to puzzle over [and perhaps take the children away from their devices]. All you have to do is complete the grid below, one letter in each square – the punctuation has been included. To help, there are clues below, in the order the words appear in the grid. If you use a Bible in book form, it will help you find out where some of the books in the Bible are. As a final task, can you find out the book, chapter and verses where this can be found.
