

TWO CLUES IN ONE

With apologies to Richard Osman, this puzzle owes much to his House of Games program on BBC TV. The difference is that this is Bible based and compiled by an amateur question setter! For those who do not watch the program, the clues set out below refer to something or someone mentioned in the Bible, and the second clue is that the initial letters of the clue match the initial letters of the answer. For example, if the clue is 'Poetry', the answer could be 'Psalms'; if the clue is 'Glamorous Cow' the answer could be 'Golden Calf'.
